

Tipton Communications Hires Jessica Bryant, Expands Communications Capabilities

NEWARK, DEL. September 30, 2011—Tipton Communications, a fast-growing, full-service employee communications, public relations and marketing agency serving clients nationwide, announced today that Jessica Bryant has joined the company as their newest communications specialist.

Bryant, a graduate of the University of Delaware, comes to Tipton Communications from Louviers Federal Credit Union, where she coordinated community relations, maintained online content and planned events and campaigns for the financial institution. She also held Tipton's first position in the agency's Accelerated Communications Internship Program, introduced last spring.

At Tipton, Bryant will focus on managing web and social media projects, developing and implementing public relations strategies and developing client marketing campaigns.

"As a former intern for Tipton, Jessica's potential shined, particularly her ability to meet tight deadlines and spearhead projects," said Dan Tipton, president and CEO. "She will be a terrific addition to the agency as she continues to deliver a combination of innovative ideas and high-quality products to our existing clients while further empowering us to expand our business."
